

Monica Cordoba

Professional Learning Expert

“Play is often talked about as if it were a relief from serious learning. But for children play is serious learning. Play is really the work of childhood.”

- Fred Rodgers

Expertise and Education

Monica Cordoba is the Professional Learning Bilingual Specialist for Frog Street. Her career spans 14 years in early childhood education, including several years in a Head Start classroom as a certified bilingual teacher, teaching children from ages three to five years old, while using the Frog Street PreK Curriculum. She also served as a PreK Instructional Specialist for a major school district in mentoring 20 PreK and Three's teachers all of whom used Frog Street Curriculum. Monica received her degree in Bilingual Elementary Education from Texas A&M University. She has also obtained a master's degree with a focus on Educational Administration. Monica is a certified Toddler and PreK CLASS observer who has attributed to the development and facilitation of countless workshops in all areas of Early Childhood.

In addition, she also provides classroom coaching to teachers across the continuum. Monica's goal is to provide educators an engaging environment where she can share effective strategies in order to provide joyful classrooms where students are successful and a love of learning is encouraged. She considers herself a life-long learner, who strives to continually grow both professionally and personally.

Call Us Today To Schedule A Free Consultation!